

County of Fairfax, Virginia

Certificate of Recognition presented to

Tyson's Service Corporation

for outstanding contributions to the women and men of Fairfax County Public Safety through which firefighters, police officers, deputy sheriffs and, therefore, all county citizens benefit from the unique training opportunities created by the loan of properties intended to be extensively remodeled or demolished, resulting in knowledge and experience gained that will have a lasting and beneficial effect in the county for years to come in terms of lives saved, both of citizens and first responders, and property protected.

Gerald E. Connolly, Chairman
Fairfax County Board of Supervisors

September 11, 2006

Date